

74th Commencement Ceremony

May 8, 2021

Dedicated to the Classes of 2020 and 2021

The Star-Spangled Banner

by Francis Scott Key

Oh, say, can you see? By the dawn's early light

What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,

O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming.

And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,

Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:

Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave?

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Welcome

Academic Regalia: A Brief History

The most visible part of any commencement is the traditional cap and gown, or academic regalia. This centuries old tradition provides a visual distinction of academic degrees and the institution granting that degree. Gowns for three levels of degrees are distinguished mainly by sleeve design. Associate and bachelor gowns have open sleeves. Master gowns have an oblong tail below the sleeve opening, and doctoral gowns are distinguished by three velvet bars on each sleeve and velvet trim on the gown's front.

Academic hoods are an integral part of a graduate's regalia. Colors inside the hoods identify the institution conferring the degree and usually have a black shell trimmed in velvet. The color and width of the velvet trim, or hood border, represents the graduate's academic degree or field of learning.

At New England College, academic regalia is worn annually at Convocation, Founders Day, and Commencement – the three celebratory milestones of our academic year. Caps, gowns, and academic costume have been worn since the Middle Ages in Europe and Colonial times in America and we are proud to continue the tradition.

Honorary Degree Recipient and Commencement Speaker

Mr. Wes Moore

CEO of Robin Hood, Army Combat Veteran and Best-Selling Author

Doctor of Humane Letters

Honoris Causa

Wes Moore is the Chief Executive Officer of Robin Hood, one of the largest anti-poverty forces in the nation. He is a bestselling author, a combat veteran, and a social entrepreneur.

Wes' first book, The Other Wes Moore, a perennial New York Times best-seller, captured the nation's attention on the fine line between success and failure in our communities and in ourselves. That story has been optioned by executive producer Oprah Winfrey and HBO to be made into a movie. He is also the author of the bestselling books The Work, Discovering Wes Moore, and This Way Home.

Wes' latest book, Five Days, explores the uprisings in Baltimore in 2015 after the death of Freddie Gray in police custody through a kaleidoscope of perspectives and examines critical questions about the deeper causes of violence and poverty.

Wes grew up in Baltimore and the Bronx, where he was raised by a single mom. Despite childhood challenges, he graduated Phi Theta Kappa from Valley Forge Military College in 1998 and Phi Beta Kappa from Johns Hopkins University in 2001. He earned an MLitt in International Relations from Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar in 2004. Wes then served as a captain and paratrooper with the U.S. Army's 82nd airborne, including a combat deployment to Afghanistan. He later served as a White House Fellow to Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice.

Before becoming CEO at Robin Hood, Wes was the founder and CEO at BridgeEdu, an innovative tech platform based in Baltimore addressing the college completion and job placement crisis by reinventing freshman year for under served students. BridgeEdu was acquired by Edquity, a Brooklyn-based student financial success and emergency aid firm, in June 2019. Wes has also worked in finance as an investment banker with Deutsche Bank in London and with Citigroup in New York.

Wes has served on numerous nonprofit and social-impact boards and is a lifetime member of the Council of Foreign Relations. The joy of Wes' life are his two children and his wife Dawn.

Hail Thee New England

Hail thee New Eng - land!
To thy dear por - tals

How can we part from thee?
we came to seek our fame,

We are thy loy - al ones,
firm was our faith in thee,

faith - ful and true.
pride in thy name.

For thee we sing thy praise,
The hap - py days are o'er,

for all thy glor - ious days.
we have the mem - o - ry

No oth - er can we love
of all our col - lege days,

save thee a - lone.
dear N. E. C.
