Speaker Bios

Aileen Hawkins, Ed.D., Head of School

Aileen has over 25 years of experience in private K-12 education and has previously worked for La Jolla Country Day School in La Jolla, CA, Sage Hill School in Newport Coast, CA, The Potomac School in McLean, VA, and most recently, the Loudoun Country Day School in Leesburg, VA. She has also conducted and presented research on private school leadership and educational technology. Aileen completed her doctorate in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies at The George Washington University, and she also holds degrees from Princeton and Brown.

Alyssa Tormala, J.D., M.Ed., Dean of Faculty

Alyssa Tormala has been in the field of education for 17 years and before that, practiced law for six years. During her educational career, Alyssa has served as a high school teacher, department chair, instructional technology coach, and vice principal focused on professional development and academics. Alyssa is passionate about the art and science of teaching in all formats and has deep experience in faculty development, instructional coaching, and curriculum development. She holds two Bachelor of Arts degrees (English Literature and Mass Communication) from University of Utah, a Juris Doctorate from Stanford University, a masters in education from Portland State University, and a School Administration Certificate from University of Portland.

Avery McGlenn, M.S., Academy Counseling Manager

Avery McGlenn has been in education for 19 years and a counselor for 13 years. She has taught and counseled students in a variety of settings over the years and loves the developmental process of supporting students and their families in the process of finding their own unique paths in high school, college, and beyond. She received her bachelor's degree in sociology from Colgate University and her counseling degree from the University of Scranton and initially came to Laurel Springs as a counselor in 2021. She now oversees The Academy Counseling team and enjoys supporting The Academy counselors in their work supporting our Academy students' academic, college-career, and social-emotional goals.

Heidi McClure, Ed.D., Counseling Manager

Heidi McClure came to Laurel Springs in October after more than 16 years of experience as a Professional School Counselor and school administrator in the brick-and-mortar setting. The majority of her experience has been as a counselor at both the middle and high school levels, most recently overseeing and innovating the college and career center at a large, public high school in Colorado. She has coordinated academic, career, and personal/social programming in her various roles, utilizing data as a key element in evaluating and improving available supports. Dr. McClure is actively involved in the American School Counselor Association and National Association for College Admissions Counseling and enjoys presenting whenever she can. She received her bachelor's degree in psychology from Colorado College and attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she earned her master's in school counseling, master's in school administration, and doctorate in educational leadership.

Speaker Bios

Alexander Lebedev, Alumni President

Alexander Lebedev is an Investment Specialist within the J.P. Morgan Asset Management International Equity Group, based in New York. An employee since 2023, Alexander graduated magna cum laude with a degree in Russian Studies from the University of Notre Dame ('19) and is a CFA L2 candidate. Alex formerly competed on the ATP Tour as a professional tennis player after having played college tennis at Notre Dame, where he served as two-time captain and was a multiple ACC and ITA Scholar-Athlete award honoree. Prior to that, he graduated from Laurel Springs School in 2015 and fondly looks back at his formative experiences during that time. His interests outside of finance and tennis include philosophy, politics, public speaking, and mentoring others.

Jim Morris, Former Teacher, Coach, MLB Pitcher

Jim's Cinderella story serves as testimony to the power of dreams and their ability to inspire and transform human life. His meteoric rise from 35-year old high school teacher to flame-throwing major league pitcher in three months made cinematic history with the release of The Rookie, starring Dennis Quaid. Jim's rise from obscurity became the feel-good story of 1999. After pitching for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in 1999 and 2000, Jim Morris signed with the Los Angeles Dodgers and retired from baseball in 2001.

Jim lives with his family near San Antonio and travels the world as America's foremost inspirational and motivational speaker. His story has become an inspiration to anyone interested in overcoming life's obstacles and living their dreams. Jim has participated in such prestigious events as The Million Dollar around Table, numerous speaker showcases, and is the author of "The Rookie".

Claire Buchi, Student Speaker

Originally from Manhattan Beach, California, Claire began attending Laurel Springs School in her junior year when she moved to San Francisco to pursue ballet full time at the San Francisco Ballet School. For her undergraduate education, Claire has committed to Columbia University where she will study chemistry with a special concentration in public health, but she will take a gap year to fulfill a contract with the second company of Atlanta Ballet for the '23/24 season.

Veronica Glover, Student Speaker

Veronica Glover is a New Yorker with plans to move to Washington D.C. in the fall to attend Howard University where she will major in psychology with the hopes of becoming a therapist or psychiatrist. Her dream is to work with teens and young adults to help them improve their mental health, overall wellness and relationships. Veronica has a passion for art and literature and enjoys painting, drawing, reading stories and learning about characters, especially romances. Veronica is looking forward to the future and hopes to travel the world.

Hannah-Nikyta Youngblom, Student Speaker

Hannah-Nikyta will be attending the University of Southern California in the Fall as an intelligence and cyber operations major. She loves reading, writing, learning to crochet, and horseback riding! As a student in The Academy, she has served as a Student Ambassador since 2018, and held the role of Student Government and National Honor Society President for the 2022-2023 school year.

Our Mission

Engaging global learners in an education that values them as individuals, integrates their passions and pursuits into academic and career pathways, and fosters inquiry, growth, mastery, purpose, and independence.
